TESTIMONIALS

STEPHEN RIAD

Head of External Sales & Vendor Operations / Southern Eastern Europe, Middle East & Africa at Google

I have known Brian for nearly 4 years now with regular catch-ups and I have to say it's been wonderful watching him grow. I have rarely engaged recruiters but when we first spoke in 2011, his energy jumped out at me and I knew he was one to watch. Our communication went from sharing recruitment advice in 2011 to now where he owns his own recruitment company and I send any top sales candidates to him for advice.

As I am sure anyone who has engaged with Brian previously will agree, he is an exceptionally skilled guy who is fun to work with but most of all has that rare genuine side to him that just makes him jump out from any recruiter I have ever met. I have witnessed him do great things since he arrived in Australia and I can't wait to see what is yet to come. Any top clients or candidates looking for an outstanding recruiter – Brian is your man.

DAVID BOLTON

Head of Engineering
William Hill

We've been growing rapidly at William Hill, with an engineering team that has scaled from 10 to 90 within two years, with some particularly pressured short periods of expansion in that time. In helping with the need to bring in excellent people quickly, I've been particularly impressed with the work that Brendan has done for us. It's important for me that we have as little "overhead" between the candidate and us, and I always had confidence that Brendan has personally spoken to candidates and represented us in the market accurately. We're still using Talentpool and expect we'll continue a successful engagement into the future.

ANUPAM RAI

Agile Project Manager / Scrum Master
Qantas

Dan is one of the most sincere and energetic recruitment consultant I have ever known. He had the clarity of job requirement and he knew what he was looking for. He was very quick to get me the job interview and provided me with all information I needed. He is very quick in response and placed me in new role in less than a week which is fantastic. He not only placed me but ensured that I am comfortable in the new job by constant interaction.

I am really enjoying working with Dan and would recommend him and ask my family and friends to get in touch with him for the new job roles.

ANDREW RECHTMAN

Executive General Manager
Residential / REA Group

Brian is one of the most energetic and genuine people I have had the pleasure of working with. In my dealings with him, as both a candidate and a client, he has demonstrated great diligence and professionalism, as well as an authentic and humorous style. Brian maintains an outstanding digital network and can always be relied on for market insights. I also know that anyone that I recommend to Brian will be well looked after, and I look forward to working with him in the future.

William is one of the most experienced and hardworking recruiters I have worked with. I have worked with William for a number of years on various roles both from both job-seeking and hiring perspectives and I was impressed by his delivery every time. Hard working and passionate, he denotes a lot of analytical capability and willingness for his both personal and professional development. Broad-minded and customer-service oriented, he can take on even the most challenging projects and deliver every time. If you ever need someone to deliver under pressure, no slip-ups, just results, William is your man!
